FOUR DELEGATES WILL BE CHOSEN BY DEMOCRATS

Adams County Democrats will elect an increased number of party officials at the primary April 24.

The Adams, York, Cumberland congressional district is authorized two votes at the national conventions of both the Republican and Democratic parties.

Republicans plan to elect two delegates and two alternates for their convention.

The Democrats, however, have notified the county election board they plan to name four delegates and four alternates. Each of the four delegates will have one-half a vote, compared to the one vote that will be held by each Republican delegate.

A reorganization of the Democratic party set up for committeemen and committeewomen has also been filed with the election board by County Chairman Fred G. Klunk. The new system will increase the number of Democratic committeemen and women to 118, 92 men and 26 women.

Other Representation

Under the new plan McSherrystown Second Ward will have three committeemen and two committeewomen. Two other districts also receive five members on the Democratic governing group. Franklin and Conewago Twp. will each name four men and one woman.

Four districts will each have four committee representatives, each naming three men and one woman. They are Cumberland, Gettysburg Third Ward, New Oxford and Station.

Seventeen districts will each name two men and one woman. They are: East Berlin, Germany, Gettysburg First Ward First Precinct, Gettysburg First Ward Second Precinct, Gettysburg Second Ward, Hamiltonban No. 1, Latimore, Littlestown First Ward, McSherrystown First Ward, Mt. Joy, Mt. Pleasant No. 1, Mt. Pleasant No. 2 and Mt. Pleasant No. 3, Oxford, Reading and York Springs.

Bendersville will have two representatives, a committeeman and a committeewoman. The following 17 districts will each elect two committeemen only: Abbottstown, Arentsville, Berwick, Biglerville, Butler, Fairfield, Freedom, Hamiltonban No. 1, Huntingdon No. 2, Liberty, Menallen, Tyrone No. 1, Tyrone No. 2 and Union.

Previously the Democrats named two committeemen from each of the 42 voting districts, plus one woman each from about half the districts.

GOP Schedule Remains

The Republicans in April will continue to vote for three committeemen from each of the 42 districts, a total of 126. There are no restrictions on sex and either male or female can fill the Republican committee posts.

The Republicans will also elect a county chairman and a vice chairman in April. The Democrats select their chairman and vice chairman and other officers at a convention held by the committeemen and women following the election.

The Republican and Democrats will also each select a state committeeman at the primary.

Offices for which candidates shall be chosen at the primary include President of the U.S., U.S. senator, judge of the Supreme Court, judge of the Superior Court, state treasurer, auditor general, representative in Congress, state senator and assemblyman.

Another Store Is Broken Into

The burglars are said to have broken open a back door and "badly battered" a safe in a vain attempt to open it. A preliminary survey did not disclose any articles taken from the store.

Severe Storm Heading Into State; Expect Heavy Snow

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS
A wintry storm out of the Midwest headed into Pennsylvania today, bringing the threat of a snowfall expected to range from an inch at Philadelphia in the south-eastern corner of the state up to a possible six inches in the north-west.

The storm center, moving north-eastward from Ohio, was to bring a quick drop in temperature, changing today's earlier rain to sleet and snow by afternoon or evening. The cold blast also would serve to dispel the heavy fog that enveloped much of the state, the weather man said.

The snow and freezing temperatures would be accompanied by gusty winds that might cause traffic-disrupting drifts on many roads.

SLIPPERY ROADS CAUSE CRASHES SUNDAY; 2 HURT

Slippery highways led to two accidents Sunday, both on the Emmitsburg Rd., state police reported today.

Two persons were injured in the crashes; two young sailors went to jail, and damage totaled $2,200.

The first accident occurred at 3 o'clock Sunday morning. Police said Miss Chloe Pembroke Crookston, 20, a Palmyra, New York, student, was driving south, five miles south of here, came over a hill, saw a cinderling truck operated by C. Russell Rohrbaugh, 54, Gettysburg R. 2, ahead of her vehicle, braked and skidded into the truck. Damage was estimated at $230 to Miss Crookston's car, $20 to the truck.

Sailors In Accident

The two injured were involved in a crash at 3:30 o'clock Sunday afternoon eight miles south of here. Police said David R. Aughenbaugh, 19, Niagara Falls, N. Y., a sailor, was driving north, passed a car, and as he sought to return his vehicle to its proper lane, his auto skidded into a southbound car operated by Robert E. Crouse, 25, 406 Lincolnway West, New Oxford. Both cars were demolished.

After the collision the Crouse car, out of control, went off the highway and broke down five panels of a fence at the home of A. J. Larmer, Fairfield R. 2. Damage was estimated at $1,950, of which $50 represented damage to the fence.

Removed to the Warner Hospital in the ambulance, Crouse was treated for possible fractures of the ribs and a severe laceration about the left ear. Aughenbaugh was treated for a laceration of the chin.

Charges Filed

Police said Aughenbaugh and a fellow-sailor at Portsmouth, Va., Naval Base, Joseph P. Barber, 19, Aspers R. 1, were in the county on a leave to visit friends. Barber owned the car Aughenbaugh drove.

Police brought charges of failing to yield one-half of the highway and driving without an operator's license against Aughenbaugh, and a charge of permitting another person to falsely display his operator's license against Barber. All of the charges were placed before Justice of the Peace John O. Whitman, Gettysburg R. 2, Cumberland Twp. In default of bail the two young sailors were placed in the county jail, police said, to await the arrival of naval authorities when they failed to post forfeit bonds of $70 fine and costs for Aughenbaugh and $50 fine and costs for Barber.

At Least 10 Women Perish, 9 Missing In Baltimore Fire

BALTIMORE (P) — At least 10 women perished in a mad dash for the exits and nine other persons were reported missing last night after fire touched off panic in a hall jammed with a church crowd of about 1,000.

More than 200 were injured in the frantic clawing, shoving and trampling which erupted as the swiftly spreading flames consumed Arundel Park Auditorium on the south edge of Baltimore.

Red Cross officials reported 18 were admitted to nine hospitals and 111 were released after treatment. Firemen said about 100 others were treated at the scene.

Survivors said one minute they were sipping beer, munching food and listening to an orchestra play "Tea for Two" at the St. Rose of Lima Catholic church oyster roast.

A few moments later the celebrants, including many children, were a shrieking, stampeding pack of humanity.

As the fire swooshed along the wooden rafters and roof of the one-story cinder-block building, hundreds broke for two large doors in the front and rear.

One of the doors, which were of the overhead sliding type used in garages, was never opened. Finding this escape barred, scores made for nearby windows.

Nine of the first bodies recovered were found huddled under one of these.

Al Barthelme, former professional basketball coach of the old Baltimore Bullets and one of the survivors, described the scene at one window as "real panic."

"With everybody trying to get out of that window, it was pretty brutal," he said.

"Some were being pulled back by others as they started through. Some were even throwing out of the windows friends they didn't think could make it any other way."

Barthelme said the fire was first detected in a duct.

"Several of the fellows got up on a ladder to put it out. All at once the flames burst out. You might say it was an explosion. The fire engulfed the guys on the ladder for a minute. I don't know what happened to them."

Like scores of others who squeezed through the steel-framed windows of about 18 by 20 inches, Barthelme suffered cuts from broken glass.

The bride was attended by her sister, Miss Janet Andrews, Littlestown R. 2, as maid of honor. The groom chose for his best man, Guy Claybaugh, Gettysburg R. 5.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, was attired in a ballerina length gown trimmed with three tiers of Alencon lace. Her finger-tip length veil fell from a crown trimmed with seed pearls. She carried a prayer book. The maid of honor wore a white and gold brocade ballerina length gown with a white net jacket. Her headband was of yellow carnations and she carried a colonial bouquet of yellow carnations. The bride's mother wore a green tailored suit.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Out-of-town wedding guests in attendance were from Pittsburgh and Jeannette.

The couple left on a week's wedding trip to Atlantic City. For going-away, the bride chose an ice blue satin dress suit. Upon their return, they will reside at Littlestown R. 2.

Mrs. Puchalski attended Penn Township High School in Pittsburgh. Mr. Puchalski also attended Penn Township High School and is now serving in the United States Army and has the rank of sergeant.

"LOOKS ARE DECEIVING"

It has been said that beauty... is really just skin deep... and that the essence of this life... stems from away down deep... and I for one agree with this... for I have found it so... that many times the sweet of face... cause untold grief and woe... whereas the plain and average folks... who wear a humble face... are all aglow with tenderness... and sanctifying grace... of course, this is not always true... for it's a complex rhyme... to analyze the folks we meet... really takes lots of time... who is there who can truly say... what the heart is weaving... for after all is said and done... looks really are deceiving.

SAYS TRAINING KEY TO RUSSIAN OLYMPIC WINS

CORTINA D'AMPEZZO, Italy (AP)—The Russians' fabulous speed skating success in the Olympics has everyone here wondering how they do it.

"It's no big secret," Michael Semenov, Russia's representative to the International Skating Union, said today. "Training is the essential thing and that certainly isn't fantastic."

"This is a year-round job and it includes not only calisthenics but dry skating in summer."

Dry Skating In Summer
Dry skating, as practiced in Europe, means going through the motions of ice skating on a gymnasium floor in the off season, sometimes with elastic bands attached to the ankles to exercise the leg muscles.

Some Americans are inclined to agree with Semenov. They point out that the young Yank skaters aren't willing to take the tough training grind.

"I've been skating for years," said one American veteran, "and I'm on my way out. But when I trained back home the younger fellows dropped out after a day or two. They couldn't keep up."

Spree In Records
"Skating in this class of competition requires the strictest training. Our fellows baby themselves." "Then too," another old-timer added, "we've got jobs. We train when we can. It would be different if the government subsidized athletes."

Whatever the reason, the Russians started a spree of record-smashing performances.

Already 21 sprinters have broken the Olympic 500-meter record and 17 skaters have bettered the Olympic 5,000-meter mark.

Father Shanahan Gives Farewells

The annual financial and statistical reports of St. Aloysius Catholic Church were read by the pastor, the Rev. Fr. Edward J. Shanahan, at the Sunday morning masses. The statistics revealed that there are 195 families in the parish with a total of 876 souls. During 1955 there were 28 first communions, 25 children and three adult converts; there were six deaths and eight marriages. There are 158 children in the parochial school. Father Shanahan also spoke briefly in farewell. After having served the congregation for more

Lawmaker Wants Paper Dishes Used

JERSEY CITY, N. J. (AP)—A do-it-yourself session in the kitchen has convinced Rep. T. James Tumulty (D-NJ.) that there ought to be a law compelling housewives to use paper dishes.

The 325-pound lawmaker found out the hard way that the little woman has no picnic.

Outfitted with a king-size apron, he put in a stint in front of Mrs. Andrew Ford's sink.

It was all done for charity—to give Mrs. Ford a chance to collect funds for the March of Dimes Mothers March on Polio. She won his services at a recent drawing among 1,000 women.

Resting his aching back after clearing a sinkful of dishes, Tumulty observed:

"If husbands helped around the home more there'd be less broken homes" but "there might be more broken husbands."

PROBE SLAYING OF SIX IN N. J. FAMILY FRIDAY

PARSIPPANY - TROY HILLS, N. J. (AP)—Investigators questioned relatives today in a continued effort to learn why William Bauer wiped out six members of his family with a shotgun and then took his own life.

Morris County Prosecutor John D. Collins said that, to all intents, the case of the shooting rampage by the 48-year-old churchgoer is closed on a verdict of homicide and suicide.

He said, however, that county detectives will question relatives of Bauer's wife in a probe for the motive.

Bauer, a civil engineer described by neighbors as a kindly and devoted family man, used a 12-gauge shotgun Friday to slay his wife, two children, his wife's two parents, his own mother, and finally himself. The family had been preparing to go to Florida for a two-week vacation.

The victims were Bauer's wife Florence, 36; his children Elizabeth, 5, and Peter, 20 months; his mother Emma, 84; and his wife's father Unique C. Neuber Sr., 66, and his wife.

Fairmount Park at Collinsville and Cahokia Downs in East St. Louis, both in Illinois, will have night thoroughbred racing next summer.

EDEN PLEASED WITH U.S. REPLY TO RED LEADER

NEW YORK (AP)—British Prime Minister Anthony Eden said today he thought President Eisenhower's reply to Soviet Premier Bulganin's proposal for a 20-year friendship pact "was admirable."

Sir Anthony made the comment during a news conference aboard the liner Queen Elizabeth.

Eden and British Foreign Secretary Selwyn Lloyd arrived aboard the liner today en route to Washington for three days of discussion with President Eisenhower.

Bulganin made his bid for a 20-year friendship pact with the United States in a secret message to President Eisenhower last week. Eisenhower rejected the proposal in a conciliatory letter and on Saturday made both communications public.

Extra Police On Duty
Extra police details were on guard at the pier as the liner docked. Eden is making his first visit to this country since succeeding Sir Winston Churchill.

Eden and his staff of 23 fly to Washington later from La Guardia airport.

A group of men and women affiliated with Brit Trumpet of America, a Zionist youth organization, staged a demonstration.

They carried placards including "Ugly head of Munich rising again," "No Munich for Washington," "Appeasement leads to war" and "Sir Anthony, go home."

Police kept the group on the opposite side of the street from the pier.

Gets Another Chance At $100,000 Prize

NEW YORK (AP)—George L. Wright II, 14, will get another chance at the $100,000 jackpot on the "Big Surprise" NBC TV quiz show next Saturday night.

George missed the final section of a six-part question last Saturday when he failed to name the author of the song "Betty Coed," Paul Fogarty.

Yesterday the show's producer Steve Carlin, announced that George will get another chance this week because "Betty Coed" had been incorrectly identified in the question as a song of the 1920s, whereas it was actually published in 1930. Carlin said George will be asked another question on songs of the 1920s. If he misses, he still will get $25,000 of winnings thus far.

Johnny Holman, recent knockout victor over Bob Satterfield, began boxing professionally in 1947.

Seek Refund On U. S. Tax On Liquor

HARRISBURG (AP)—The state Justice Department prepared papers today to file a claim with the federal government for refund of $4,446,360 paid in liquor taxes.

Atty. Gen. Herbert B. Cohen said the state in the action seeks to recover taxes paid by Pennsylvania after Congress increased the federal levy on liquor from $9 to $10.50 a gallon, effective Nov. 1, 1951.

The Justice Department contends that the liquor had been previously legally taxed at $9 a gallon.

LEADER SPEAKS ON SECURITY

WASHINGTON (AP)—Gov. George M. Leader of Pennsylvania says the administration's loyalty program has made this the "age of insecurity—for security reasons."

Leader, speaking Saturday at a meeting sponsored by the Nationalities division of the Democratic National Committee, cited the case of Wolf Ladejinsky as a man being jabbed disloyal by "administrative decree."

Of this case, in which Ladejinsky was fired by the Agriculture Department and rehired by the Foreign Aid Agency last year, Leader said:

Benson Admits Injustice
"Secretary (of agriculture) Benson was finally forced to admit that it was unjust to call Mr. Ladejinsky a security risk. Secretary Benson now says that the loyalty-security tag pinned upon him was simply a pretext..."

"For Secretary Benson's real reason for dismissing Ladejinsky was his belief that everyone in the Department of Agriculture should be a native-born American."

The security problem is infinitely more critical for the foreign-born Americans than for the native-born," Leader asserted.

Ladejinsky, dismissed from an agriculture post in Japan, is a native of Russia.

32 PAID TAXES

The 32 residents of the Cone-wago Independent School district paid $204.85, the total amount of their school tax bill, according to the annual report of the tax collector, Mrs. Howard Albright, East Berlin R. 2. The report shows the residents of the district were charged $204.85 by the five-mill real estate tax and $80 on a $250 per capita tax. All was paid prior to the penalty period, according to the report.

TRAILBLAZERS PINNED DOWN BY POLAR WHITEOUT

By SAUL PETT

LITTLE AMERICA V, Antarctica (AP)—American trailblazers have been pinned down for two days by a blinding whiteout a little more than halfway on their journey deep into Marie Byrd Land.

The seven-man team last reported its position as about 330 miles southeast of Little America V, Operation Deepfreeze's main base on the Ross Ice shelf.

The whiteout, an antarctic phenomenon in which the horizon and snow terrain are lost in a white-blue light refraction, also grounded a plane flown out from the base to do reconnaissance work for the ground party.

Towing Mire Sleds
The small caravan is composed of one Weasel (a tractor-treaded jeep), and two tractor-type "Snowcats." It left this base Jan. 14.

The Snowcats, which like the Weasels are heated and enclosed, are towing nine sleds loaded with rations and equipment. Their assigned goal is a point where an International Geophysical Year base is to be constructed for use by American scientists.

The trial party has been planting red flags every fifth of a mile and is storing fuel every 50 miles for use on the return trip.

To Wintley At Base
Riding in the lead vehicle is the boss man of the party—"Pemican Pack" Bursley, a colorful barbed-wire lieutenant commander from Grand Rapids, Mich. He has made two previous expeditions to the antarctic with Rear Adm. Richard E. Byrd.

Bursley and his party will winter over at the base here. His fellow trail blazers are Chief Surveyor George Moss, North Providence, R.I.; Mechanic I.C. Charles H. Wedemeyer, Philadelphia; Radioman I.C. Raymond J. Dube, Taunton, Mass.; Driver I.C. Roland Levesque, Beverly, Mass.; Driver I.C. Alvah G. Edwards, Lakebay, Wash.; and Photographer I.C. Chester M. Stevens, Lock Haven, Pa.

St. John's Nepomucene Church, Luzerne, for 37 years, died here yesterday. He had been ill since he suffered a heart attack Dec. 4 while reading mass.

Out Of The Past

From the Files of the Star and Sentinel and
The Gettysburg Times
ONE HUNDRED YEARS AGO

The directors of the poor have re-appointed John Scott Steward, Dr. D. Horner Physician, Robert Paxton Clerk, and Alexander Co. bean Treasurer.

Littletown Railroad: We learn that the subscriptions for a Railroad from Littletown to Hanover already reach $20,000. The amount necessary to make the road is estimated at $60,000. The prospects of being able to make the road by subscriptions of stock alone are said to be very flattering. Several of the subscriptions are very liberal — from $1,000 to $2,000.

The sheriff sold, on the 18th and 19th, the ten acre lot of George W. Fickie, in Latimore township, for $524.50 — Wm. Hinkle purchaser and the house and lot of Isaac C. Thomas, in Berwick township, for $216 — Wm. Bittling purchaser.

Fire: We regret to learn that the dwelling-house occupied by Mr. Abraham Hirst, near Fisher's mill, on Opossum creek, was entirely destroyed by fire on the evening of Sunday the 20th inst. The roof was in flames before the fire was discovered by Mrs. H., who was alone with her children, her husband being absent at the time. The children were asleep upstairs, but she rushed up and saved them, as also, with the assistance of some neighbors, who collected quickly, a portion of the furniture. The property had just been purchased by Mr. Christian Keckler, upon whom the loss of the house falls, without any insurance.

SEVENTY-FIVE YEARS AGO
Fairfield Items: Dr. George Shively, formerly of this place, has bought the Drug Store of Mr. Huber in Waynesboro, Franklin county, and has taken charge of the same. We wish the Doctor success in his new home.
Messrs. Motter, Maxwell and Co., shipped in one week from their warehouse in Emmitsburg 4,000 bushels of grain, a portion of which came from this neighborhood.

On Thursday last whilst John and James Sanders were trying their strength in the shop of H. Lawrence, on a mandril, it fell on the foot of James Sanders, breaking the great toe. Dr. A. B. Beaver was called in and reduced the fracture.

On Thursday evening, Robert Armour, D. Kitzmiller, J. J. Myers and C. Mc. Wilson, of Gettysburg, visited Valley Home Lodge of this place. Robert is well posted on Odd Fellowship, no mistake about it.

V. V. Danner, agent for the Domestic Sewing Machine, paid our town a visit this week.

New Oxford Items: Never since this place has had warehouses, has there been so much clover seed brought here; and yet it is thought that it will be higher in the spring. If we were to report the number of bushels received the past six months it would scarcely be believed. We may give some account hereafter.

The most deserving poor are often the most modest in their demands. To unt these out and relieve their distress is a wiser bestowal of charity than to give indiscriminately to every tramp who comes to your door.

Court Proceedings: The regular January term of Court convened on Monday, Judge McClean presiding. The Courts were also open on Saturday. The following current business was transacted:

W. W. Heffer and DeLone vs John Skidmore. Motion to open judgment. Opinion of Court filed; judgment opened on conditions.

William Heffer vs. Mathew A. Gordon. Motion to open judgment. Opinion of Court filed; judgment opened on prescribed conditions.

The benefit of the Married Woman's Act was granted to Barbara Gruel.

Report of reviewers to inspect the workmanship of a bridge over Conewago creek, on Harrisburg road, confirmed absolute.

ENCOURAGEMENT

The giving of encouragement to others is one of the noblest acts in this life. Most of us have been thus blessed. In the giving of encouragement we merely give something of yourself — and that could well be beyond price.

When Robert Frost was in England in his early days he had a handful of companions who appreciated him, including Edward Thomas an excellent nature poet. His friends so encouraged Frost that he got together a little batch of poems and took them to a well-known London publisher. They were immediately accepted and came out as Frost's first book, a small volume entitled "A Boy's Will." This was in 1915. It was this knowledge that he had "arrived," and the kindly appreciation of his little group of friends, that convinced him he could make a career as a poet. How gloriously he has succeeded!

Walt Whitman, another American poet to grow into fame and greatness, attributed to Emerson the encouragement that sent him on his way. This was his tribute: "Emerson brought me to the boil!" From then on, carefully and persistently, did the great book of Whitman's "Leaves of Grass" unfold.

How many times this encouragement comes too late! We have the opportunity to give it, but unthinkingly pass it up. If the giving of encouragement was a difficult thing to give, there would then be some excuse for not always giving it, but it's the simplest yet most valuable gift we have for others! It costs us nothing but the effort to make someone else very happy — how happy for both giver and receiver — we can only guess.

Tomorrow Mr. Adams will talk on the subject: "Art And Life!" Protected, 1956, by The George Matthews Adams Service

Just Folks

FAMILY GROWTH
After your years can be counted by dozens.

When you're at a wedding you don't know the cousins.
You need some one near 'til the ritual ceases
To tell you the names of the nephews and nieces.

Time was that you knew all the grownups and small ones, the fat ones, the thin ones, the short ones and tall ones.
But the small ones have married and hasten to greet you.
With two or three children who've waited to meet you.

At weddings and funerals strangers will show up.
To prove just how rapidly families grow up.
You'll meet some relations by marriage no word of Before that occasion that you'd heard of.

"That's life," says my Janet, "to keep the world humming
And ever improving the children keep coming.
As babies to smile for the grandfolds they're carried;
The next time they're seen they are grown up and married."

DIES OF INJURIES

LANCASTER, Pa. (AP)—A 24-year-old man died Saturday of injuries suffered in an automobile accident on Route 501 four miles north of here Friday night.
He was identified as Samuel W. Wright, Lancaster General Hospital attendants said they freed the victim from a burning car which crashed into a utility pole.

Grand Juror, Judge McClean fully instructed the jury as to their duties.

On Friday noon, as the freight train on the railroad, drawn by the large new locomotive, was nearing the passenger depot, the engine jumped the track, running some 20 or 30 feet on the ties. The axle of one of the large driving wheels, 6 1/2 inches in diameter, snapped in two, disabling the engine. The immense weight of the engine and the mashed track caused considerable delay in getting it in shape to be moved, which was accomplished on Saturday with the aid of another engine. It was taken to the shops in Hanover for repair.

Dr. J. P. Smith, of Hanover, who recently died, leaves his entire estate to his wife during life, and on her death to go to the borough of Hanover for a free public library. The estate is over $75,000.

PLEDGE ALL-OUT EFFORTS FOR A DEM ASSEMBLY

HARRISBURG — Pennsylvania Democrats Saturday pledged all-out efforts to win full control of the General Assembly next November in order to rule out repetition of the present 13-month stalemate.

Democratic leaders scored the Republican-controlled Senate for what it termed "blind partisan obstructionism" in the long tax impasse. The House is Democratic-controlled.

The Democratic State Committee at a meeting on Friday promised "to do everything in our power to elect a Democratic majority in the General Assembly of Pennsylvania in 1956."

Want Districts Changed
At the same time the Democratic policy makers turned their sights on campaigns far in the future by reapportionment of present legislative districts as an early order of business in the 1957 Legislature.

"One of the first things to do is to get a reapportionment of the House and Senate to give the people decent and equitable representation in Pennsylvania," Gov. Leader told a cheering audience of committee members.

The governor blamed Republicans for cutting up the state's legislative districts to such an extent that even the sweeping Democratic victory of 1954 failed to dislodge the GOP from control of the 50-seat Senate.

"Like A Strike"
The result, Leader contended, is that Senate Republicans have stymied the administration's legislative program and killed two separate administration tax bills.

"This situation is like a strike," Leader declared. "Somehow, somewhere, there must be a solution." Republicans reapportioned the House districts in 1953. Democrats control the chamber by a slim majority.

The Senate has not been redistricted since 1920.

Leader, Elected Delegate
In other action, the committee turned its attention to the question of electing 120 delegates to the Democratic National Convention in August. Each of the state's 30 Congressional districts will have four delegates and two alternates. They will be elected at the April 24 primary.

The committee unanimously elected 28 delegates-at-large, including Gov. Leader and other top party dignitaries.
The committee shied away from any mention of slatemaking for the November elections because of the behind-the-scenes fight between two Philadelphians for the Democratic nomination for U.S. Senator.

Mayor Seeking Support
Both former Mayor Joseph S. Clark Jr. and U.S. Rep. William J. Green, Democratic city chairman, are seeking organization support for the nomination.
During Friday's meeting both waged an earnest sideline campaign by buttonholing county chairman and other officials to gain support.

In addition to its formal resolution attacking the Republican Senate, the Democratic State Committee backed resolutions that criticized the "part-time leadership" of President Eisenhower and called for election of a larger Democratic Congressional delegation from Pennsylvania.

Texas Presbytery Honors First Negro

HOUSTON (AP)—The Brazos Presbytery, representing 90 southeast Texas Presbyterian churches, U.S. Southern, on Friday elected its first Negro moderator.

The new moderator the Rev. J. H. M. Boyce, 65, veteran pastor of Houston's Pinecrest Presbyterian Church, is one of the two Negro ministers in the 100-year-old Brazos Presbytery.

A native of Mississippi, Rev. Mr. Boyce is a graduate of Stillman Institute at Tuscaloosa, Ala. He and Mrs. Boyce have nine children.

Shouldn't They Have Flunked Out By Now?

MANILA (AP)—Immigration officials ordered detention today of three Chinese students, explaining it this way: In 1947 the students were admitted to the Philippines to enter first-year high school, without any grade school credits, and had been in the same class nine years "without any apparent progress in their studies."

TOKYO ROSE LEARNS PAROLE TERMS TODAY

CHICAGO (AP)—Tokyo Rose, welcomed home from prison by her family, reports to the U. S. courthouse in Chicago today to learn the terms of her parole from the federal reformatory at Alderson, W. Va. She served 6 1/2 years of a 10-year term for treason.

Tokyo Rose — Mrs. Iva Ikuko Toguri D'Aquino — whose low-voltage talk of pretty girls and home over Radio Tokyo tantalized GIs in the Pacific in World War II — went into hiding from reporters after her arrival in Chicago yesterday.

A brother, Fred Toguri, said she didn't want to talk to newsmen before her appearance at the courthouse because "she doesn't want to do anything to jeopardize her parole."

Mrs. D'Aquino, who was born in Los Angeles, was served with deportation papers when she was released from prison Saturday.

"Served Her Punishment"
Mrs. D'Aquino feels she has "served her punishment" and that she wants to remain in America and be an American citizen.

She drove from West Virginia with her father, Jun Toguri, the brother and a sister. The family moved to Chicago after all persons of Japanese ancestry were relocated from the West Coast in World War II.

The government contends Tokyo Rose lost her citizenship on conviction of treason in San Francisco in 1949.

Robinson said she will not be kept in custody while the legal question of whether a natural-born American can be deported is settled.

Mrs. D'Aquino's husband Philip, a Portuguese, is working for a newspaper in Tokyo.

FOOT SOLDIERS NOT OBSOLETE IN NUCLEAR WAR

CHARLESTON, S. C. (AP)—Gen. Nathan F. Twining, the Air Force chief of staff, said Saturday the time is fast approaching "when any conflict would be waged with nuclear weapons."

Twining also voiced doubts that after an even limited exchange of "nuclear blows" that land, sea and air forces would be able to fight on in traditional style.

In a speech prepared for delivery at The Citadel, a military college, Twining said that when the "first furious phase" of an atomic exchange is over, the ability to go on would depend on how well the foot soldiers have survived.

"This is when the forces that can exercise and exploit control of land and sea will begin to play an important part," Twining said. He denied that he or any other responsible Air Force official had said that another war would be short, or that foot soldiers are obsolete.

Twining said the "possibility of a nonnuclear peripheral action" may last for a few years. But, he added, "we are rapidly approaching the day when any conflict would be waged with nuclear weapons."

He based this belief on an assumption that "many, if not all, of the (Soviet) satellites will be provided with or will develop some degree of nuclear capability just as they are now being provided with modern jet planes."

DEATH RULED ACCIDENTAL

RENO, Nev. (AP)—A coroner's jury ruled Friday that the death of 19-year-old airman Eric M. Latham, Hulmeville, Bucks County, Pa., was an accident.

Latham shot himself in the head at Stead Air Force Base last week after another airman handed him a revolver in which he had just inserted a shell and twirled the cylinder.

SET CONNELLY TRIAL MAY 7TH; EX-TRUMAN AIDE

ST. LOUIS (AP)—U.S. Dist. Judge Ruben M. Hulien has dismissed motions filed by Matthew J. Connelly and Harry I. Schwimmer, and tentatively set their trial for May 7. Connelly, appointments secretary to former President Truman, and Schwimmer, former Kansas City Lawyer, pleaded innocent on Friday to charges of conspiring to defraud the government by fixing a tax case.

Theron Lamar Caudle, also named in the indictment, received a delay until Feb. 3 on a hearing on his motions in the case because of the illness of his attorney. Caudle formerly headed the tax division of the Justice Department in the Truman administration.

Refused Dismissals
Judge Hulien ruled against motions seeking dismissal of the indictments and motions seeking to transfer the trial to Washington. He took under advisement some other motions, including going to separate trials for the defendants.

Defense attorneys argued yesterday that Connelly and Schwimmer had not been advised properly of their constitutional rights before they testified before the grand jury which last indicted them.

The indictment was based on the handling of the prosecution of an income tax case against Irving Sachs, St. Louis shoe wholesaler, who later was fined $40,000 but given no prison sentence for tax evasion. Schwimmer, now a Puerto Rico businessman, was Sachs' attorney.

Seek Escapees From Criminal Hospital

SCRANTON, Pa., Jan. 30 (AP)—Police continued to search today for three escapees from the Farview State Hospital for the Criminally Insane.

The men made their escape yesterday after breaking open two padlocks with hack saws. Police said they stole two automobiles, abandoning one after it ran into a ditch near the hospital. The second car was found in Dickson City, where the search centered today.

The men were identified as Walter Ceglarski, 36, of Kittanning, Pa., committed for killing his mother two years ago; Raymond Sutton, 55, of Philadelphia, committed after a number of arrests for automobile theft; and Anthony S. Esposito, 34, of Philadelphia, who has a record of robbery and carrying concealed weapons.

Penn Given Grant For Teacher Training

WASHINGTON (AP)—Pennsylvania State University is a recipient of one of 23 grants totaling more than a million dollars by the National Science Foundation.

The grants, announced yesterday, are designed to improve teaching of science and mathematics in the nation's high schools and colleges.

The awards went to colleges, universities and professional societies to conduct institutes led by outstanding scientists, engineers and mathematicians for high school and college teachers.

The Penn State grant is for institutes to be conducted for high school teachers by the university. The amount of the grant was not disclosed.

HIGHWAY BILL BOOSTS TAXES

WASHINGTON (AP)—Estimates of what the proposed new federal highway construction bill would cost the motoring public in additional taxes ranged today from 10 to 18 billion dollars in the next 13 years.

A tax bill to finance the program is still being prepared, but the first item would be a one-cent increase in the federal gasoline tax—now two cents a gallon.

Spaker of the House Rayburn (D-Tex.) said Democratic and Republican House leaders have reached general agreement on that.

Leaders of both parties met in Rayburn's office on Friday behind closed doors and reached general agreement, Rayburn said, on the need both for a highway improvement program and for increased taxes on such items as gasoline, tires and tubes used on the highways to pay for it.

Rep. Martin (R-Mass.), the House Republican leader, agreed. A reporter asked if the administration would go along with more taxes.

STRONG BACKING FOR RIVER DAM

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Public hearings held by the U. S. Army Engineers to sound out sentiment for a Delaware River dam to aid flood control has produced strong support for the project.

At one of a series of meetings Friday, officials from Pennsylvania and New Jersey endorsed the advisability of the proposed Wallpack Bend project near Bushkill, Pa.

Dr. Maurice K. Goddard, Pennsylvania's secretary of forests and waters, said there should be no delay in building the dam. He said the dam and reservoir could have helped prevent the floods which killed nearly 100 persons and caused millions of dollars damage in northeastern Pennsylvania last August.

John H. Reiners Jr., Camden, N. J., vice chairman of the board of governors of the Delaware Valley Council, said the Wallpack Dam "will serve to implement programs for future water supply, the control of disastrous floods, the abatement of stream pollution, the augmentation of flows, and the retardation of salinity."

More than 100 persons attended the hearing yesterday in the lecture room of Philadelphia's main public library. Col. Allen F. Clark Jr., district army engineer, presided.

NIGERIA CHEERS ARRIVAL OF BRITISH QUEEN

By ALVIN STEINKOPF
LAGOS, Nigeria (AP)—Queen Elizabeth II—first British sovereign to visit this century-old crown colony—landed here Saturday amid jubilant shouts of welcome for a 20-day ceremonial visit.

The young sovereign and the Duke of Edinburgh rode 11 miles to the city from Lagos Airport past masses of cheering Nigerians.

The visitors sat in an open car under a cream-colored umbrella with tassels. They waved constantly during the slow ride to Government House, where they will stay during their visit.

Make 3,300 Mile Trip
The royal couple left London late yesterday for the 3,300-mile trip to this lush land, four times the size of the United Kingdom, which was once the main source of supply for the slave trade.

They made the flight aboard the same four-engine plane which took Elizabeth home from Africa four years ago when, at the start of a world tour, she learned of her father's death.

Enthusiasm has been so great over the royal visit that native police issued appeals: "Don't run after the Queen's car. You might be run down by following vehicles."

Warned About Jets
The public has also been warned not to panic at the scream of jets during a Royal Air Force show scheduled in the Queen's honor.

The Queen's schedule in Lagos included: Inspection of public buildings and institutions, presentation of colors to the Nigerian regiment, a state dinner, visits to the courts and Parliament, and a garden party.

The Queen will then begin her strenuous 2,500-mile tour inland by train and plane.

The Battle of New Orleans, last engagement of the War of 1812, was fought 15 days after peace had been made.

Two American Figure Skaters Take Early Lead In Olympics Event At Cortina D'Ampezzo

CORTINA D'AMPEZZO, Italy. (AP)—Tenley Albright, the poised world champion figure skater from Newton Center, Mass., who conquered a childhood attack of infantile paralysis, took a decisive lead at the Winter Olympics today in the first three compulsory figures.

She amassed 623.1 points to 614.5 for her rival, Carol Heiss of Ozone Park, N. Y. Between the two of them, the United States seems assured of at least one gold medal.

While Tenley and Carol dominated the compulsory figure phase at the Olympic rink, a 27-year-old Norwegian woodchopper gave Norway its first championship in the 15-kilometer cross-country ski race.

Norwegian Idol Wins

Halfgrip Brenden, a Norwegian athletic idol who won the 18-kilometer title in 1952, staged a front-running race through the snow-covered Campaccio Valley to win in 49 minutes, 39 seconds. The distance covered nine miles, 560 yards.

Sweden's Sixten Jernberg, who was second in last Friday's 30-kilometer grind, captured the silver medal in 50:14 while Russia's Pavel Kolchichin took third in 50:17 to boost the Soviet's commanding team lead.

America's two entries finished out of the running. Andrew Miller, a 24-year-old Army man from McCall, Idaho, was 41st in 56:08 while Larry Damon, 22-year-old collegian from Burlington, Vt., was 51st with 57:18.

Champ Hits Gate

In the women's special slalom, defending champion Andrea Mead Lawrence of Parshall, Colo., hit a gate on her first descent and may have jeopardized her chances. The 23-year-old mother of three was clocked in 57.5 seconds for the first of her two tries down the twisting, hazardous course.

The best opening 55.6 run was recorded by Renee Colliard, a pretty Swiss miss in her first competition.

The slalom favorite, Madeleine Berthod of Switzerland, like Mrs. Lawrence, fell at the next-to-last gate and just about eliminated herself. She was timed in 64.4.

Mrs. Dorothy Surgenor of Seattle, Wash., subbing for the injured Betsy Snite, turned in a creditable 1:09.1, the fastest of the last third of the field. Snite, from Norwich, Vt., injured her left knee in a practice spin yesterday.

Glady's (Skeets) Werner of Steamboat Springs, Colo., was timed in 1:13.9. Penny Pitou, 17-year-old schoolgirl from Laconia, N.H., had 1:26.2.

Only two gold medals were awarded yesterday, one to Boris Shilkov of Russia in the 5,000-meter skating time: 7:48.7 and the other to Toni Sailer of Austria, who won the giant slalom in 3:00.1. A performance like this is tantamount to the 4-minute mile in foot racing.

Ralph Miller of Hanover, N. H., who was the United States' No. 1 hope, fell at the start, but regained his balance to finish 13th.

The point-starved Americans made a strong start toward winning their first gold medal when three Yankees—Hayes Alan Jenkins of Colorado Springs, Ronnie Robertson of Long Beach, Calif., and Jenkins' kid brother David finished 1-2-3 in the compulsory section of the figure skating.

The compulsory figures count 60 per cent in the scoring. The free skating, scheduled for Wednesday, counts 40 per cent.

The Russian's third place in the cross-country boosted the Soviet Union's unofficial team total to 64 points, more than twice that of the runnerup Austrians, who had 29. The United States is far back with 6 1/2.

York Weight Lifter Breaks World Record

DAYTON, Ohio (AP)—Bob Hoffman, of York, Pa., coach of the U. S. Olympic weight lifting team, said a performance last night by Charles Vinci, also of York, broke a world standard held by a Russian.

Hoffman said Vinci, weighing 122 1/2 pounds, lifted 290 pounds in the two-hand clean and jerk at the 22nd annual Ohio AAU tournament.

Hoffman said Gregori Stogov set the old mark of 286 pounds in last year's world championships at Munich, Germany.

PLAYERS IN CRASH

HAZLETON, Pa. (AP)—An automobile carrying three members of the Trenton, N. J., team in the Eastern Professional Basketball League overturned on an icy highway north of here yesterday, injuring one of them, Andy McGowan.

McGowan suffered body bruises. Bob Zawoluk and Sal Amadio escaped injuries and played in a game here later, won by Hazleton 110-95.

The newest 1956 titleholders (with district) are:

Old Forge of the Lackawanna League (2), Plymouth of the Wyoming Valley League (2), Middletown of the South Penn (3), Lewistown of the Mountain League (6), State College of the Central State (6), Meadville of the East Penn (11), Allentown, Lewistown, State College and Meadville are defending champions.

Early Title Winners

Teams which won first half titles earlier are Pottstown of the Chesapeake League (1), Reading of the Central Penn (3), Bloomsburg of the Susquehanna League (4), Coal Twp. of the Keystone League (4), Mahanoy City of the Black Diamond (11), Palmerton of the Lehigh Valley League (11), Mahanoy Twp. of the North Schuylkill League (11) and Pottsville of the Lehigh-Northampton League (11).

Pottstown, Reading, Coal Twp., Mahanoy City and Palmerton are defending champions.

The eastern playoff shapes up as a duel between Chester and Allentown. Old Forge, Reading and Bloomsburg are favorites to win the district 2, 3, and 4 titles.

In the west, Farrell, New Castle and Alliquippa are tied for honors in Section III of the WPIAL.

Scheduled To Break Tie

The three-way tie, however, is due for a break tomorrow when Farrell takes on New Castle and Alliquippa lines up against Beaver Falls.

Pottsville holds a half game lead in District 9. Clearfield retains second place with a 4-0 record.

Bloomsburg, extending one of the longest winning streaks this season to 15 games, opened the second half of the Susquehanna League with a win.

Westmont continued to dominate the Tri-County League of District 6 with its 7th circuit victory, without defeat.

Altoona Good Bet

Independent Altoona, 12-2 on the season, is almost a sure bet to qualify for the District 6 playoffs with a winning percentage of at least .625.

Johnstown, 8-5 in PIAA games this year, also has a good chance but must win 13 of its remaining 19 games.

DONS MAKE IT 40 STRAIGHT FOR NEW MARK

By ED WILKS
The Associated Press

Will success spoil the San Francisco Dons?

It's not likely. But that's about the only thing that figures to trouble the all-winning Dons until they put their major college basketball championship on the line in March in the NCAA Tournament.

Coach Phil Woolpert's club has leveled everything in sight, ringing up 40 straight victories for an all-time major college record. And the 11 games remaining on their regular season schedule wouldn't scare your timid Aunt Minnie.

Weak Sisters Ahead

What's more, top-ranked San Francisco now is really all alone atop the national rankings. Dayton, which gave the Dons at least one opponent for the No. 1 spot while rolling to a 14-0 mark, was chopped down by Louisville 69-64 in overtime last weekend.

All that stands between the Dons and a 51-0 record are the weak sisters of their California Basketball Assn.—San Jose State (tabbed as victor No. 41 tomorrow night), Santa Clara, College of the Pacific and the like.

The Dons never ran into anybody quite like the California Bears, who became victim No. 40 Saturday, 33-24. A stalling game by the Bears prevented the Dons from scoring more than one field goal in the second half, but it couldn't prevent the inevitable and San Francisco smashed the 39-game record hung up by Long Island U. in 1935-37 and matched by Seton Hall four years later.

After NCAA Berths

The Dons open against the Pacific Coast Conference champ in the NCAA's Far West regionals at Corvallis, Ore., March 6. UCLA is the likely PCC winner. The Bruins—last to beat the Dons (a decision already reversed)—are 4-0 and have a two-game test of Washington, tied for second with Southern California at 5-1.

Other hopefuls seeking NCAA berths return to the task tonight after layoffs for exams. Illinois (4-0) gets back to the Big Ten race against Minnesota with a chance to tighten its first-place grip. Kansas State, tied with Colorado and Kansas at 3-1, can edge into the Big Seven lead against Oklahoma. K-State and Colorado have at it Saturday, with Kansas meeting fourth-place Iowa State.

Kentucky looks for a "comeback" in the Southeastern Conference against Georgia Tech tonight after Vanderbilt dumped the Wildcats 61-73 Saturday. Vandy is high with 6-0. Alabama is 4-0, Kentucky 4-1.

North Carolina (3-1) can gain a good hold on the Atlantic Coast Conference lead by beating runner-up Duke (6-1) Saturday. West Virginia (6-1) can do the same in the Southern Conference by defeating Virginia Military tonight and Richmond Saturday.

Pro Bowl Game On Channel 13 Sunday

Football fans will be able to see the pro football bowl game on WAAM February 5 at 4 p.m. It was announced today by Ken Carter, WAAM general manager. The game which was played in Los Angeles on January 15 was neither televised nor broadcast at that time and fans throughout the country were sorely disappointed at not being able to see one of the most thrilling pro games of the year. The Eastern All-Stars were the winners of the contest by the score of 31-30, with the game ending seconds after a disputed play could have given the Western team the victory.

Bert Bell, commissioner of the National Football League, realizing the desire by the millions of pro football followers to see the game has released the game film for television.

The game film will be especially interesting to Baltimore Colts fans as five members of the 1955 Colts team were members of the Western squad. Dick Szymanski-center, Art Donovan-tackle, Bert Rechichar-back, Gino Marchetti-defensive end, and Alan Ameche-sensational rookie fullback, all participated and were mainstays of the Western club.

The Motor Sales Company of Baltimore, sponsors of Pro Football Highlights on WAAM during the season, will also sponsor the pro bowl game.

chance to tighten its first-place grip. Kansas State, tied with Colorado and Kansas at 3-1, can edge into the Big Seven lead against Oklahoma. K-State and Colorado have at it Saturday, with Kansas meeting fourth-place Iowa State.

Waitkus Has Quit Game For Business

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Eddie Waitkus, one of major league baseball's better first basemen during his 13-year career in the big time, has quit the game to accept a job with a trucking firm.

Waitkus, 35, released by the Philadelphia Phillies at the end of the 1955 season, announced Saturday night that he had accepted an offer from another ex-major league first baseman, Buddy Hassett, to join Eastern Freight Ways, Inc., today.

Hassett, who played for the Boston Braves, Brooklyn Dodgers and New York Yankees, is vice president of the firm. He offered Waitkus the job after a get-together at a banquet circuit meeting.

CROWLEY WON'T MAKE PROBE OF PERRY'S DEATH

PHILADELPHIA (AP)—Chairman James Crowley of the Pennsylvania Athletic Commission says he plans no formal inquiry into the death yesterday of middleweight boxer Robert Perry unless a further report from the ringside doctor indicates that one is needed.

Crowley termed Perry's death "very unfortunate" and said "it's one of those things that has worried me ever since I took over as chairman of the commission" last year.

Perry, 20, died in Episcopal Hospital little more than 48 hours after he lost a locally televised bout at the Cambria to Rudy Watkins of Baltimore.

Knocked Down Twice

Watkins was awarded a TKO decision after referee Pete Pantaleo stopped the fight in the sixth round Thursday night. Perry had been knocked down in the first and sixth.

Later, in his dressing room, he complained of a headache. He was taken to the hospital where he became unconscious. An operation was performed immediately to relieve a blood clot on the brain. The fighter remained in critical condition until he died.

Crowley, who was reached in New York last night, said he had been in touch with Commissioner Alfred Klein, who covers the Philadelphia area for the commission, and said he had been told Perry passed a doctor's examination before the fight. The ringside physician, Dr. Wilbur Strickland, was unavailable for comment.

U.S. SKIER DIES IN SNOWSLIDE

ST. ANTON, Austria (AP)—U. S. State Dept. officials here awaited word from America today on burial plans for Janet Lester Neville, 26, of West Chester, Pa., killed Saturday with five other skiers in a snow avalanche.

The disaster spread gloom and shock among tourists at this mountain resort.

Miss Neville and eight British and German skiers went with an instructor near Ulmer Mountain by cable car. A snowslide a half mile long, 600 feet wide and 10 feet deep caught them at an altitude of about 6,000 feet. Three Germans were dug out but the others perished.

Studying Languages

The American girl's body is at the funeral chapel of the St. Anton church.

Miss Neville was the daughter of Athelstan Neville, a copywriter for a Philadelphia advertising firm. He said he had received a letter from his daughter last week saying what a good time she was having on her ski holiday.

The girl, who graduated from Smith College in Massachusetts in 1950, came to Europe last summer and had been traveling and studying languages at the University of Innsbruck. She came to St. Anton on Jan. 1.

DEMARET WINS THUNDERBIRD; PHOENIX NEXT

PALM SPRINGS, Calif. (AP)—The wandering golfers, their annual winter invasion of California ended, headed today for the $15,000 Phoenix Open with Jimmy Demaret leading the procession as the latest tournament winner.

Jimmy, who has trimmed down his competitive appearances considerably, took $2,000 top money in the $15,000 Thunderbird Invitational—the second time he has won the event.

He came from behind to defeat Cary Middlecoff with a last-round 69 and a 72-hole score of 269. Middlecoff had a par 71 and a total of 270.

Caught Him On 14th

He caught Middlecoff on the 14th green and passed him on the 15th, banging out a pair of birdies that were decisive.

Gene Littler, who all but shot himself out of the tournament with a second-round 76, came back with a rush. His last-round 66 went for 277, third place and $750.

Tied for fourth were Julius Boros, who began the day in third position, and Gardner Dickinson Jr., who was in fifth place. Boros took a 73 and Dickinson a 70 for 278.

Bill Ogden, the fourth man at the outset, fell back with a 76 for 283.

Others to move up were Mike Soucek, with a 68; Tommy Holt, 69; Arnold Palmer, 67; and Fred Hawkins, 70, all tied at 279.

THIRD TROPHY FOR DELANEY

BOSTON (AP)—Upstart collegians like Ron Delany and Charlie Jenkins are making life uncomfortable for America's veteran track campaigners at the start of this Olympic year.

Delany, the Irish mile record holder attending Villanova, has three trophy mile victories in as many tries for the indoor season—beating U. S. Olympic hope Wes Santee in his latest conquest at the BAA meet Saturday night.

Delany covered a seemingly hopeless gap to pass the field on the gun lap and win by five yards in 4:06.3. Santee's fourth place time was 4:08.8.

Jenkins, another member of the Villanova wrecking crew, set a new track record of 1:09.9 to take the 600. He beat such veterans as Olympic 800 meters champion Mal Whitfield.

In the 50 yard dash Villanova sophomore George Sydnor used his rocket start to defeat Lt. Rodrick Hardt, national 220 champion, and Andy Stanfield, the Olympic 200 meter king.

And Villanova's Phil Reaves tied Ernie Shelton of the Los Angeles AC at 6 feet, 9 inches in the high jump.

PROVIDENCE BEATS BARONS

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

The Pittsburgh Hornets have won 10 straight games in the American Hockey League and are within one victory of tying a circuit record, but they haven't made any appreciable dent in the Providence Reds' first place margin.

While the Hornets were idle last night, the Reds—who had a 10-game victory string earlier this season—widened their lead to six points by defeating the Cleveland Barons 4-2. Third place Buffalo and fifth place Hershey played to a 2-2 overtime deadlock in the only other game.

Trailing 2-0, the Barons tied the Reds early in the final period on goals by John McEellan and Fred Glover. But Zello Toppazzini and Bruce Cline came through for the Reds in the final 9 minutes. Toppazzini's goal was his second of the game. The other Reds goal was scored by Jim Bartlett.

Pete Babando tallied in the first period and again in the second to send the Bisons in front in their game with the Bears. But the third period was all-Hershey as Gordie Wilson and Kenny Smith tallied to send the game into the scoreless overtime period.

WEST APPROVES IKE'S TURNDOWN OF RED TREATY

WASHINGTON (AP)—The Western world has generally approved President Eisenhower's turndown of a 20-year "treaty of friendship" between Russia and the United States proffered by Premier Bulganin.

The Kremlin, as had been forecast by officials here, gave evidence that it intends to squeeze every bit of propaganda it can from the exchange of letters between the two.

The Soviet press yesterday headlined the news of Bulganin's proposal. Moscow papers carried the full text of his letter and treaty draft.

Ike's Reply Not Published
But Russian papers carried no word of Eisenhower's reply that such a pact is unnecessary and might create a false illusion. Thus it appeared that Moscow hoped later publication of the rejection would give it greater impact on the Russian people.

In its issue today, the Communist party paper Pravda called Bulganin's offer "a deeply thought-out system of measures to re-establish the historical friendship between the Soviet Union and the United States."

It cautioned, however, that "it cannot be considered that the threat of a new war has disappeared."

Need More Than Words
"It is deeds and not words alone which count," Eisenhower told Bulganin in the exchange made public over the weekend. He said that what is needed to promote world peace is "a change of spirit." Bulganin had written that it would be "an act of great international significance" for peace if the United States and Russia would sign a treaty pledging (1) to settle disputes peacefully, (2) to avoid interference in each other's affairs and (3) to strengthen economic, cultural and scientific cooperation.

Eisenhower's letter, as courteous in tone as was Bulganin's suggestion that Russia join in steps to unify Germany, end the threat of atomic war, free Russia's satellite states and abolish the Iron Curtain. He invited Bulganin to write his reactions.

Bound By U. N.
The president noted that the two nations are already bound by treaty—the United Nations Charter—to do all the things Bulganin proposed they do in a new two-country pact.

"How can we hope," Eisenhower asked, "that the present situation would be cured merely by repeating those words...?"

He added that such a treaty "might indeed work against the cause of peace" by creating an illusion that all is well.

An indication of Moscow's probable official reaction came from Foreign Minister V. M. Molotov, who told Western correspondents at Prague, Czechoslovakia, that he found it difficult to see how anyone could reject a friendship treaty.

Favorable Reaction
Elsewhere in Europe, reaction was generally favorable if unofficial.

"The President has smartly turned the tables," said the Conservative Sunday Times in London, "on what is generally interpreted as a somewhat clumsy Soviet attempt to drive a wedge between Britain and the United States on the eve of the Washington talks."

That was a reference to Prime

SNEAK REPAIR FORMULA
HARTFORD, Conn. (AP)—Walter Grubenmann, an industrial engineer, says he tried repeatedly to repair the heater in his automobile, but had no success until this happened:

While parked in a restricted area, he saw a policeman approaching. Assuming correctly that he wouldn't be bothered if he pretended to be making repairs, Grubenmann lifted the hood of the car, loosened a screw and retightened it after the policeman had passed. The heater has been working fine ever since.

USSR 6 MONTHS LATE WITH BIG PROPAGANDA TRY

By JAMES MARLOW
Associated Press News Analyst
WASHINGTON (AP)—The Russians' treaty of friendship offer to the United States — rejected by President Eisenhower — is a pretty clear propaganda try at turning the tables.

The Russians suffered psychological and propaganda damage when they rejected Eisenhower's sensational "open skies" proposal. It took them six months to think of an equally dramatic way to get even.

At Geneva in July Eisenhower suggested the United States and Russia agree to aerial inspection of each other's countries as a necessary step toward disarmament and protection against surprise attack by either.

Ike's Idea Good
With this proposal Eisenhower put the United States in the position of taking the initiative for peace. World reaction was good. Men everywhere could visualize it: airplanes taking pictures from the sky.

The proposal had the appeal which propagandists must dream about: a simple idea easily grasped. And it was bold. Upon examination it was not so simple.

It has never been clear whether Eisenhower's plan had been carefully thought out or was pulled from his hat on the spur of the moment. And he did not say whether the demand included America's overseas bases, which the Russians might want to watch more thoroughly than anything inside this country.

Russians Vetoed "Open Sky"
And it still is not known whether Congress ever would have approved it, since Eisenhower's plan would let Russian planes poke around inside this country. But there was never any need to get into a deep examination.

The Russians had a choice, to be made fairly fast, of saying yes or no. It was almost certain they would say no, since their whole regime is based on concealment. They said no. The no did not make them look good.

Then last week the Russians came up with the friendship treaty plan, knowing "Eisenhower could not go for it."

Ike's Reason For Rejection
It would, from the words used by Premier Bulganin, force the United States into agreeing to an endless Russian grip on the satellites; drive a wedge between the United States and its allies; and create an illusion of peace when there was no peace.

Eisenhower replied that if the Russians really want peace, they can prove it by deeds, such as the unification of Germany and the freeing of the satellites. The Russians can get propaganda mileage out of Eisenhower's no when they broadcast their offer and his rejection. The millions who can't read or who never see a Western paper giving Eisenhower's reasons will be told only that the President refused the offer of a treaty of friendship.

Eisenhower and Bulganin no doubt were highly conscious of what world reaction would be—Eisenhower's aerial inspection and Bulganin's treaty of friendship. Neither rejected the other's offer with the word no but their answers were nevertheless a rejection.

DOWNTOWN FISHING

SAN ANTONIO, Tex. (AP)—Detective Joe Garcia caught an 8-pound redfish in downtown San Antonio. Suspicious about the conduct of a man who hurried into a cafe with the fish under his arm, Garcia checked with a nearby fish and poultry market. Sure enough, they were short a fish, and Garcia got his man — and fish.

"A reception was held for more than 200 invited guests from 12:30 to 3 p.m. The wedding couple are spending their honeymoon in Maryland."

"The presents were numerous and valuable, among them being a quilt over 100 years old from the grandmother of the bride."

"Among those who attended from this place were: Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Neely, Dr. Geo. C. Cobean, H. T. Weaver and wife, J. A. Holtzworth and Rev. Woods and wife."

The Gettysburg Compiler of Feb. 7, 1906, added the following: "A reception followed the ceremony at the home of the bride and fully 200 guests partook of the wedding feast. The bride received a number of handsome presents of cut glass, china, silverware, furniture and bric-a-brac. The groom's grandmother and bride's uncle remembered them with goodly sums of money. The bride's grandmother gave her a handsome silk quilt over a hundred years old. The young couple took the evening train same day to spend their honeymoon in Maryland."

Says Wallpack Dam Will Solve Problems

NEWARK, N.J. (AP)—Pennsylvania state Sen. Joseph Yasko (D-Northampton) believes a dam at the Wallpack Bend of the Delaware River would help solve water supply and flood problems of Pennsylvania and New Jersey.

Three New Jersey legislators are in agreement with him.

State Sen. Wayne Dumont (R-Warren) and Assemblymen Frederick H. Hauser (D-Hudson) and G. Clifford Thomas (R-Union) appeared with Yasko on last night's weekly televised "Legislative Report."

The dam would cost slightly more than 70 million dollars, Yasko said, "but anyone questioning the cost should consider the amount of money spent on repairs after Hurricane Diane would build two such dams."

LEADER PUSHES STATE'S MENTAL HEALTH EFFORT

HARRISBURG (AP)—Gov. Leader today tackled a rush label on the administration's 29 million dollar mental health program as part of the commonwealth's "particular responsibility" to aid the handicapped and underprivileged.

"I shall never cease in my efforts to get this money," the governor declared. "It takes precedence over any other item in our budget."

In a 4,000-word speech over a 13-station network Saturday night, the governor appealed to Pennsylvanians to press for legislative passage of programs to aid the unemployed, the handicapped, the underprivileged and the mentally ill.

"Those of us who are in government must come to look upon them as our special constituents," Leader told a statewide television audience in a State of the commonwealth address.

Cites Tax Deadline
Leader touched briefly on the General Assembly's tax deadline and renewed his offer of a 50-50 program whereby he would sign a sales tax measure to raise half the 465 millions he says is needed to balance the budget.

Republicans, in turn, would have to approve an administration tax program—possibly a 2 per cent personal net income tax.

Leader said administration programs have been bottled up in the Republican-controlled Senate after being passed by the Democratic-dominated House.

To back up his plea for speedy action on a mental health program, Leader showed views of overcrowded conditions in such mental institutions as Mayview, Allegheny County, and Byberry, Philadelphia.

The scenes were taken during an inspection trip made by the governor with newsmen through mental institutions last fall and were shown to the lawmakers several weeks ago.

Mother-Son Reunion After 26 Years Ends In Tragedy

SAN FERNANDO, Calif. (AP)—A mother, who first learned a missing son's whereabouts three weeks ago, was reunited with him Friday for the first time in 26 years, but her tears were of sorrow, not joy.

"Don't you know me, sonny," asked Mrs. Elizabeth Forney, 73, of McGraw, N.Y. The son, Kenneth Forney, 48, a tubercular patient who suffered a stroke early this month, moved his head feebly and tried to nod. He couldn't speak.

Nine hours later Kenneth died. "He never wrote in all those years," the mother, a widow, said after the meeting. Her eyes brimmed with tears. "And now he can't tell me what happened."

Forney had been able to speak only briefly since suffering the stroke.

The last the mother heard from him, was from Tampa, Fla., in 1932. He left home in Watertown, N.Y., in 1930. He is the third of eight children. Another son, Kenneth, 47, also has not been heard from by the Forney family since 1932. Both had left home during the depression seeking work.

When Kenneth entered Olive View Sanatorium as a patient in November, 1954, he didn't give authorities the names of any relatives. He became worse and last Christmas he told doctors and nurses he wanted to see his family.

He asked an attendant to write a letter for him to his mother. After she received the letter and her story was printed in the Syracuse, N.Y., Post-Standard, the McGraw Chamber of Commerce raised money by contribution for her plane trip.

Another son, Army Maj. Leon Forney, of Ft. Sam Houston, San

Red Liar Gets

Another Chance

NEW ORLEANS (AP)—A contempt citation against Harvey Matusow, self-proclaimed liar in Communist cases, bounced back to a lower court Saturday after a federal appeals bench upset his three-year conviction.

The Fifth Circuit Court of Appeals ruled Friday that Matusow, a former Communist, was entitled to a fair hearing even if the federal district judge at El Paso, Tex., thought he was lying.

It sent the case back for new action in line with constitutional guarantees.

The contempt citation was handed down in March, 1955, after Matusow reversed himself and said he was lying when he branded Clinton Jencks, New Mexico labor leader, a Communist in a previous case.

Antonio, Tex., has been here since Tuesday. He did talk with the brother.

"Kenneth recognized me all right," the major said. "I asked him what he was doing. He said he had been working at odd jobs here and in Sacramento."

An informative program for the do-it-yourself fan.
